

CARDUS BUILDERS

In 2000 Cardus joined a small group of think tanks seeking to better Canadian life through public policy tools. Ten years later, this work is more important than ever and we have contributed substantially to areas of education, generosity, labour, and more.

But this did not happen by accident. A small group of dedicated supporters with long-term vision came together and helped shoulder some of the risk such ambitious ventures carry. “Should this work”, the thinking ten years ago went, “it could change everything.”

Cardus Builders carry this momentum forward. Again, our growth and success relies on a small, intentional group of supporters willing to make an investment.

Help us reach the next level of success with your receiptable donation of $1,000 or more.
