

- WHAT... The opinion journal of Cardus, serving Christian leaders and culture makers with rooted, fresh ideas for the faithful practice of North American public life.
- WHEN... Quarterly print edition, and weekly online offerings.
- READERS... Print: 2,000—30% Canadian, 70% American.
Online: 19,000 pageviews per month.
- VOICE... Comment aspires to honest, humble thought; clear, simple writing; and courteous, civil dialogue. Comment does not aspire to trendiness, but rather to serious reasoning underpinned by a Biblical view of the world. As an opinion journal, Comment also does not publish journalistic reporting, but does seek thoughtful, honest discussion.
- STYLE... Comment adheres to style guidelines set forth in the Chicago Manual of Style. Authors are asked to use Canadian spellings, which are roughly a hybrid of British and American spellings. So “neighbourhood” and “honour,” but “realize” and “civilize.” We reserve the right to edit occasionally based on caprice.
If in doubt, consult this handy web guide: www.luther.ca/~dave7cnv/cdnspelling/cdnspelling.html

- OBLIGATION... Comment has no obligation to publish submitted work, and reserves the rights to change publication dates and/or media. Should Comment choose not to publish a work it has solicited (in writing), a fee of 40% of the committed payment will apply.
